“Enjoy one another, the dishes can wait.”

“Community is a reminder of God’s work in the world.”

“When we start thanking God instead of grumbling and we are thankful for things in our lives, our heart changes.”

Offer hospitality to one another without grumbling. 1 Peter 4:9

Journal Prompts:

What is your grumbling style? Tricia talks about the various ways members of her family grumble -- complaining, discontent, protesting. Grumbling and blaming others often comes from insecurities. In what ways does this play out in your life, in your family?
