

The Turquoise Table Podcast with Kristin Schell

Discussion Guide S2E9 Awful Beautiful Life with Becky Powell & Katherine Reay December 4, 2019

Quote highlights from Becky and Katherine:

“Becky’s story has taught me to reach out more, to stay in touch more. . . I have sought community more.” Katherine Reay

“When a friend is in pain, just show up.” Madison Powell, Becky’s daughter

“God was very clear and very present.” Becky Powell

“Time is healing and God is faithful.”

Journal Prompts:

Write about a time in your life when God has been very clear and very present. If you are waiting on God, write about how that makes you feel.

Is there someone in your life right now who is in pain? How have you or will you show up? What hurdles do you need to overcome to “just show up”?

Discussion

Share about a time when you have experienced the healing power of community.

Becky, Katherine and Kristin share that for them it’s harder to receive than to give. Can you relate? How are you learning to receive hospitality or lean on community?

During Advent and as we approach Christmas, what is keeping you focused on hope?